Special Issue on

SYNTHETIC AND NATURAL BASED BIONANOMATERIALS
BIOMEDICINE AND ENVIRONMENT

Guest Editors

Assoc. Prof., Dr. Ram Prasad

Assoc. Prof., Dr. Mehmet Firat Baran

CONTENTS

Vol.9, Special Issue, 2024

R. Khalilov, A. Bakishzade, A. Nasibova (pp.5-10)

Future prospects of biomaterials in nanomedicine

G. Rosic, D. Selakovic, S. Omarova (pp.11-34)

Cancer signaling, cell/gene therapy, diagnosis and role of nanobiomaterials

M. Karadag, A. Baran, Z. Güneş (pp.35-39)

Production of value-added cosmetic products from cold-pressed Helianthus annuus L. oil and pulp

S. Babanli, I. Ahmadov, R. Khalilov (pp.40-52)

Effect of nano zinc oxide on the chlorophyll content of bean plants under drought stress

A. Ekinci, D.N. Sayın Ipek, H. İçen (pp.53-57)

Ectoparasites of domestic pigeons (Columba livia domestica) in Diyarbakir province in Türkiye

N. Erdil (pp.58-80)

Cardiovascular disease, signaling, gene/cell therapy and advanced nanobiomaterials

E. Huseynov, R. Khalilov, A.J. Mohamed (pp.81-91)

Novel nanomaterials for hepatobiliary diseases treatment and future perspectives

M. Karadag, S. Doğan, Z. Güneş, B. Kartal (pp.92-96)

Nigella Sativa L. seed paste into a value added product by recycling

P. Salahshour, S. Abdolmaleki, S. Monemizadeh, S. Gholizadeh,

S. Khaksar (pp.97-104)

Nanobiomaterials/bioinks based scaffolds in 3D bioprinting for tissue engineering and artificial human organs

M. Karadağ, S. Omarova (pp.105-110)

Use of Prunus armeniaca L. seed oil and pulp in health and cosmetic products
